OLD BUSINESS

1. Trails – Terry Yeaton reported he had flagged the new loop for the proposed trail on the Old Mill Farm property.
2. Markers – The Commission examined the sample markers that Voss Signs had sent. After discussion the consensus of the Commission was that the thinner of the two samples (.012 gauge) was fine for the Commission's purposes. The Commission discussed the prices listed in the catalog. Terry Yeaton noted that there was $400.00 in the supply line item of the Commission's budget. Richard Head said that the price for 250 would be $207.50 or 500 would be $280.00. John Segedy reminded the Commission that there was also a charge for setup/layout for the first order and that the Company had said that was usually $43.00 (but could vary). Consensus of the Commission was to get 500. Terry Yeaton noted that the catalog indicated that the prices listed were without mounting holes. The Commission discussed the benefit of having mounting holes. After discussion the consensus of the Commission was that it would be worth five cents extra per marker ($25 for 500) to have holes in them.
Richard Head moved: To authorize John Segedy to inquire on the cost for adding mounting holes to the markers and if equal to or less than five cents each to proceed with placing an order for 500 markers as discussed.
Ann Ford seconded. Motion passed 4-0.

3. Signs – tabled.
