Street Lights

Presentation to the selectmen went well.

Energy Star Portfolio Manager Software

Sue Durling reported that it is connected. Waiting on some data from the town. Sue will send out the data she is waiting for.

Electric vehicle charge station

Laura Buono told us during the Selectmen's meeting that Mike Borden had been to a training and Jon volunteered to contact him, but forgot, he will do that.

Brett talked to his friend Becky Ohler, Climate and Energy Director at DES. She also works with the Dover Energy Commission. She is going to do a presentation for them and will do the same for us.

From his notes from the phone call, the public utility commission can issue grants from the VW fund ($4.2 million). Perhaps local businesses could pool some money and purchase a Level 2 charger. The program is run by the Governor's Office for Strategic Initiatives.

Building Efficiency

Jon will call Shakes to Shingles and see what funding for the new year looks like.

Sue's brother-in-law bought an attachment for his cell phone for infrared scanning and offered to come along to audit any buildings we would like.

Next meeting: January 28th, 6:00PM.

Meeting adjourned at 6:20 PM, motion to adjourn by Sue Durling, seconded by Jon Daley. Daley – aye, Durling – aye, Charrette – aye, Cherrington – aye;

Respectfully submitted,
Jon Daley
